

Do you require support or advice to help you live independently?

Are you homeless or at risk of being homeless?

Housing support can help you access the tools and skills needed to find accommodation and live independently in your own home.

Support can be provided to help people with lots of different issues, for example:

Over 55's with Support Needs

Domestic abuse

Learning disabilities

Alcohol or drug dependency

Single parents and Vulnerable families

Mental health issues

Young People 16 - 24 with support needs (including those leaving care)

Some examples of housing support include:

Advice, advocacy and liaison with organisations

Setting up and maintaining a home

Basic life skills training

Help with managing a budget and claiming benefits

If you think you would benefit from housing support, you can contact the Housing Supporting team for more information
